

Monticello Public Schools
ISD #882
JOB DESCRIPTION

Position Title: Interpreter Paraprofessional

Department: Paraprofessional

Exempt Status: Non-Exempt

Reports To: Building Principal

Date: April 18, 2016

Approval: Assistant Superintendent

JOB SUMMARY: Provides individual support to students who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing (DHH) under the direction of licensed special education instructional and/or related services staff. The interpreter provides access to auditory information within the educational environment. Promotes the development of communication skills and supports educational enhancements to the student.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

20% Reinforce Classroom Instruction

- A. Provides access to auditory information to (DHH) students. Follows and supports the communication plan as described in the assessment or Individual Education Plan (IEP) which may include sign language, tactile sign language, communication device, tactile objects, etc.
- B. Guides student through activities and hands-on exploration of materials as appropriate.
- C. Provides access to information, environments and materials for the student who may otherwise be unable to access or understand due to sensory impairments.
- D. Provide ongoing input and suggests modifications to lessons as needed for student and as specified in the IEP under the direction of licensed staff. The IEP could include working with student in adaptive physical education class.
- E. Prepares/creates accessible materials for classroom themes/subjects.
- F. Assist teacher with student by guiding, assisting or reinforcing lessons.
- G. Explain or interpret instructions and assignments while working with student one-to-one or in small groups.
- H. Administer and correct tests/quizzes.
- I. Collect and maintain data as directed by supervising teacher.
- J. Extensive knowledge of multiple technology mediums and assistive technology including the ability to scan and transfer information from one device to another. Adapt to various policies and regulations.

20% Program Support

- A. Prepare and assemble materials for instruction, projects, events, activities, games, bulletin boards and other resources.
- B. Gather, set up, operate and return supplemental instructional materials and equipment.
- C. Assist with assessment activities and observations and attend meetings with parents, if requested.
- D. Recommend ideas, identify problems and aid in problem solving.
- E. Report and assist with first aid and emergency care.

20% Personal Assistance

- A. Attend to and provide for student(s) daily hygiene, personal and health related cares, including dressing, feeding, lifting, transferring, toileting, diapering, and medical care as directed by teacher.
- B. Assist with student(s) occupational therapy and physical therapy directives.

20% Supervision/Discipline of Students

- A. Assist in supporting classroom discipline. Inform teacher and/or principal of discipline problems. Handle minor discipline situations according to district discipline guidelines.
- B. Assist in implementing behavior management programs.
- C. Supervise and monitor students on playground, study hall, locker room, lunchroom, hallway, etc.
- D. Assist with deescalating student(s).

10% Record Keeping/Reports

- A. Reports any significant behavioral or academic concerns and maintains a daily log of student goals and behaviors.
- B. Consults with licensed staff regarding progress and facilitating learning.

5% Communication

- A. Maintain communication with teacher regarding schedules, student progress and problem solving on a daily basis.
- B. Communicate and interact with parents as directed.
- C. Provide feedback and share ideas with appropriate staff.

5% Professional Development

- A. Attend in-services and workshops as appropriate.

Perform other duties as assigned or requested.

WORK REQUIREMENTS AND CHARACTERISTICS:

Education/Certification Requirement:

- High School diploma or GED.
- Provisional or full certification in ASL.

Experience:

- One to three years of experience working with school children and/or special needs populations is preferred.
- Knowledge in DHH, language development and various communication systems including: object calendars/schedules, object cuing, tactile signing, ASL, and experience working with DHH individuals preferred.

Essential Skills Required to Perform the Work:

- Skill in American Sign Language.
- Skill in DHH, language development and various communication systems and methods.
- Skill in object cueing, coactive and interactive signing, tactile signing, etc.
- Skill in supervising student behavior and applying consistent consequences for appropriate and inappropriate behaviors.
- Ability to apply rules, instructions and stated policies, procedures and IEP plans.

- Ability to develop a rapport with children and explain concepts in a simple and understandable manner.
- Proficient with use of assistive technology.
- Knowledge and application of basic computer, math and language skills.
- Ability to work well with students and staff.
- Ability to work with children of various ability levels.
- Knowledge of District discipline policy.
- Ability to write routine correspondence, routine reports, memos, documents, charts or other materials.
- Ability to effectively present information in one-to-one and/or small group situation to student(s), staff or other employees concerning District/program routines, policies, rules, learning principles, concepts and other lesson plans.
- Skilled in adapting lesson plans to the individual needs of students to facilitate learning and to assist in meeting any individual learning plans and objectives.

Machines, Tools, Equipment, Electronic Devices and Software Required:

- May operate communicative devices, computer, printer, copy machine, facsimile machine, multi-line telephone, paper cutter and die cut.
- Operates wheel chairs, standers, lifts and power chairs.
- Operates large motor adaptive equipment for physical education class.

Supervision of Other Employees:

- This position does not provide work direction or supervision to other District employees.

Physical Job Requirements:

- Position involves extended periods of sitting, standing, stooping and kneeling for performing classroom activities and supervision.
- Position involves extended periods of time on feet.
- Position involves occasional lifting up to 40 lbs. and/or two person lift.
- Position involves listening, speaking clearly and visual acuity.
- Position involves positioning of students.
- Position involves physical retraining of students.
- Position involves swimming.

Mental Job Requirements:

- Position involves handling multiple tasks at once while dealing with constant interruptions.
- Position involves exercising confidentiality in handling information.
- Position involves flexibility and a willingness to undertake a variety of tasks, sometimes at the direction of more than one person.
- Position involves accuracy, organizing and prioritizing tasks in order to meet deadlines.

Working Conditions:

- Majority of work is performed in normal classroom conditions.
- Position involves occasional exposure to blood/bodily fluids and airborne pathogens.
- Position involves occasional exposure to outside temperatures and weather conditions.
- Position involves noise from students.
- Position involves exposure to students with special needs.
- Position involves potential exposure to emotional outbursts.

Job Outcomes:

- Projects a positive, cooperative and respectful attitude with students, parents, other employees and community members.
- Helps to promote safety and prevent accidents.
- Supports students and staff by providing services that support the educational activities and programs.
- Provides the best opportunity for every individual student to reach their maximum potential.
- Provides a safe, learning environment.
- Assists in providing accurate student records.
- Maintain confidentiality of student information.
- Maintains a positive and professional educational environment at all times.

This description describes the general nature and work expected of an individual assigned to this position. Employees may be required to perform other job-related duties as requested by their supervisor. All requirements are subject to possible modification to reasonably accommodate individuals with a disability.